CONNECTING BUSINESSES TO COLLEGE GRADS

HireFloridaGrads.com to help match Florida graduates with jobs

(MIAMI – May 21, 2013) – In support of a statewide initiative, the South Florida Workforce Investment Board (SFWIB) issues a challenge to businesses to connect graduating college students to employment opportunities.

In an effort to better serve graduating college students, HireFloridaGrads.com, a special web portal, is available for searching jobs. Graduates can complete profiles on the web portal, which will assist SFWIB in matching qualified job seekers with open positions.

SFWIB is an established workforce system that offers job seekers employment and training services at no cost. Many services are provided online at www.EmployFlorida.com, in addition to direct service delivery through 14 Career Centers in Miami-Dade and Monroe counties.

“An educated workforce is vital to the health of our economy. South Florida Workforce is committed to assisting businesses with retaining highly skilled and educated talent to better positions,” said Rick Beasley, executive director for South Florida Workforce Investment Board.

Businesses interested in hiring college graduates are encouraged to call SFWIB Business Services at (305) 594-7615 ext. 407 or visit southfloridaworkforce.com to connect with a business consultant. The consultant can assist businesses with posting job openings, supply list of qualified candidates and answer questions about hiring incentives among other services.
