CAREERSOURCE SOUTH FLORIDA GIVES BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

(MIAMI, November 16, 2015) – CareerSource South Florida partners with the United Way of Miami- Dade to prepare and donate 17 gift baskets for the 15 families living at the Catholic Charities New Life Family Shelter

Catholic Charities New Life Family Shelter is one of many impact partners that United Way of Miami-Dade provides funding to through the various contributions received by Miami-Dade County and other entities. United Way of Miami Dade currently supports 115 programs through its 55 impact partners.

Catholic Charities New Life Family Shelter serves as a transitional facility for homeless families. Its “Getting Ahead” program also helps individuals experiencing an interruption of income due to loss of employment or illness to pave a path to financial independence by providing rent, mortgage, utility and food assistance.

A total of 17 baskets full of personal hygiene and baby products were delivered to the families currently residing at the shelter.

There are 15 living units and 15 families received baskets (additional baskets were given to those with children age ranging from 0-5 years).

Five (5) CSSF headquarter employees attended the tour and delivered the baskets.

Families currently residing at the shelter have children age ranging from 0 to 19 years (school age).

New Life Shelter families and employees expressed their sincere gratitude for the Live United Hygiene Care Baskets that were prepared by CareerSource South Florida headquarter employees.
