FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

LEADING THE CHANGE

“INSPIRING OUR YOUTH - BUILDING A COMMUNITY”

(Monroe County, March 30, 2016) CareerSource South Florida launches its Summer Youth Employment and Ready to Work Programs. These programs will provide opportunity to Monroe County’s future workforce. Both programs are designed to provide entry-level positions within local businesses, private sectors, and community-based organizations.

Program selection will be achieved through a lottery process for candidates who have met all program requirements. Participants must be between 14-27 years of age and reside in Monroe County. Open registration is currently available at www.careersourcesfl.com.

“Building our community, while offering meaningful employment options and income to our youth and young adults is critical to supporting the efforts in Monroe County and bringing families in our communities closer together. The Summer Youth Employment and Ready to Work Employment Program will allow youth and young adults to take on new responsibilities, gain on-the-job experience and transferable career readiness skills, and develop essential social skills that will help them achieve success in the future workforce and contribute to the growth in their communities,” said Rick Beasley, Executive Director for CareerSource South Florida.
